re recovery of Sampradhanam from certain tenants in Nellimarla Agraharam Trouble school —

Serial No.

The M.R.'s report that a sum of Rs 25/- has been ordered to be recovered from one Chinnaraya Appa towards the cost of Sampradhanam on account of his being guilty of Sri Nrijanaya Swami temple at Varahanarasimhalli Srungavarapu Taluk. Though he was alleged to be of weak mind, the Sampradhanam has been recovered from him.

2 It is clear from the statement of 24/11/33 of Shaik Nanasinbaiya given before the Tahsildar that at the time Tahsildar S.V. Madhava Rao and T.P. Venkatarama Sastri, who had brought the Sampatha inside the temple proper, that Mangalarathi, Tirtha Prasada & Shalavi Etc Mariyadhs were given to the Sri Swamiji the same day - Tahsildar

18) While Cost of Sampradhanam has been recovered from Chinnaraya Appa (para 16 supra) alleged to be of weak mind, it is a matter for consideration whether such instances would be noted as a precedent for the case to follow, if no notice is taken in the first instance.

With reference to your Me o No.P. .135/36-34 dated 6-1-34 re: Sa.-
prokshara to Sri Ven atramaswamy temple at Devanahalli, Kolar Dist.
I have the honor to state that it is reported by the Circle Inspector, Dodballapur, that Mr. [illegible] to Madhi caste and that the members of this community are prohibited from entering the temple and that the cost of Samprokshana amounting to Rs.40-1-0 may be recovered from Messrs. [illegible]

It will be seen from the correspondence ending with Mr. Lakshmana Rau, Asst. Commr. and others that Mr. T. Madhava Rau the Muzrai Secretary asked the priest of the temple to give prasada flowers to Sampige and to pour Tirtha on the deity and the head of Sampige and that the priest acted accordingly. Mr. T. Madhava Rau denies having asked the archaka to give prasada to Sampige. Whatever the Secretary might have done Sampige outside the temple had no right to enter the temple. Sampige admits in his letter dated 30-3-34 to the Collector, Kolar that he did not go to any of the temples from Nandi-mathi and that he has not done anything against the principles in the temples during his visit to Nandimalla.

The entry of Sampige to the temple has desecrated necessitating Samprokshana. The Government servants should not be allowed to misbehave like this. The amount of Samprokshana has to be recovered equally from the persons responsible.

The Director of Public Instruction may kindly be requested to recover the amount.

The connected records are enclosed for reference and return.

With reference to your letter No.34/Muz. dated 8/11th July 1934 requesting me to intimate the amount at the credit of Sri Venkataramanaswami temple, Basavanahalli, Nelamangala Taluk, I have the honor to state that the temple had at its credit a sum of R 101-14-7 at the end of May 1934.

ter No.C3.1540/33-34 dated 20-12-33 from the Deputy Commissioner, ore District, to the Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore.

With reference to your letter No.P.C.185/33-34 dated 16-11-33 forwarding for report a copy of telegram dated 14-11-33 from the people of Nelamangala stating that people belonging to depressed classes entered Sri Venkataramanaswamy temple at Pasavanahalli and praying for Samprokshane to the deity, I have the honor to state that it is reported by the Amildar, Nelamangala, after enquiry that on the night of 11-11-33 one Mr. Sangappa, Headmaster of the Middle School, Nelamangala, alleged to belong to 'Mocha' community entered the temple premises of Sri Venkataramanaswamy at Pasavanahalli and took the 'Prasadam' and Thirtha (along with others including the schoolmasters of the Middle School. The Archak of the temple who was examined by the Amildar stated that he was not aware that Mr. Sangappa belonged to the untouchable class, that he had come inside the temple and took the 'Prasadam' along with others.

Both the Amildar and the Sub Division Officer were of opinion that Samprokshana ceremony was necessary. I have therefore issued instructions to the Amildar to get the 'Samprokshana' ceremony done at once if the temple has been desecrated by the entry of Mr. Sangappa.

Mr. Sangappa has since been transferred from the place and action will be taken, if necessary, to recover the cost of Samprokshana ceremony from Mr. Sangappa.
